Adrian Cole leads King & Spalding's Middle East Dispute Resolution Practice. He is a construction law specialist advising on disputes relating to energy, real estate and infrastructure development. Prior to becoming a lawyer, Mr. Cole qualified as an engineer / quantity surveyor and has first-hand experience of the practical issues in the engineering and construction industries.

Mr Cole has been listed by Who's Who Legal as one of the top 25 construction dispute resolution lawyers in the World and ranked tier one by Chambers Global and Legal 500. "He's the kind of guy you want with you rather than against you." (Chambers Global 2017).

Mr. Cole is an experienced arbitrator, adjudicator and mediator and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and a member of the Chartered Institute of Building. He has worked both in-house (International Counsel Vinci in Hong Kong and Paris) and in private practice in the UK, Singapore, Hong Kong and the Middle East. His wide experience in the construction and engineering industries allows him to bring a commercial and pragmatic approach to the resolution of disputes.
